Akola. .:: RESPONDENT

Shri T. R. Kankale, Assistant Government Pleader for the petitioners.
None for the respondent.

CORAM : A. B. Chaudhari, J.
DATE : 23rd August, 2007

P. C. :

1. Rule.

2. The respondent though served remained absent. This petition can be disposed of without service of rule on the respondent because there is challenge to the interim order made by the Industrial Court on 15/3/2007 rejecting the application (Exh.2) in revision ULP No. 131 of 2006. Having heard the learned Assistant Government Pleader, I find that the petitioners have made out prima facie case for continuance of the ex parte stay that was granted in favour of the petitioners pending revision. The revision itself could have been finally disposed of by the Industrial Court rather than vacating the interim relief that was granted in favour of the petitioners. In view of this, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the petition pending in this Court and the following order will suffice to meet the ends of justice.

3. Writ petition is allowed. The impugned order is quashed and set aside. The Industrial Court is directed to decide pending Revision ULP No. 131 of 2006 as early as possible and in any case within ten months from today. Till then the stay, that was granted on the application (Exh. 2), shall continue.

4. The respondent is at liberty, if he is aggrieved, to approach this Court for review of this order.

5. Rule accordingly.
